

WHAT NARNIA TEACHES US ABOUT BEING MERE CHRISTIANS TODAY

In this lecture, we will consider how we can read C.S. Lewis' Chronicles of Narnia, from a practical theological point of view. In an increasingly post-Christian age, the Chronicles continue to gain popularity with each generation. Lewis believed that by visiting the imaginary Narnian world we could more clearly see what is going on in our world, and what God is up to in it. From his many letters to children, it is evident that he expected adults to use these stories as a primer for children to think through deep theological matters early in life. In particular, the lecture will explore the ways in which the seventh book, The Last Battle, teaches us about how to live as mere Christians in our current cultural moment.

Presenter: Dr. Dwain Tissell

With 40 years of pastoral experience, Dr. Tissell is an adjunct professor teaching theology, apologetics and leadership at Western Seminary in Portland, Oregon.

Monday, June 17, 2024 | 7:00pm

Fourth Ave Bible Church, 62 Fourth Avenue South, Niverville MB

This event is free and open to the public. Zoom option is also available.

Registration is required for in-person or online attendance.