WHO DO YOU SAY THAT I AM?:

JESUS CHRIST FOR US TODAY

3 Credit Course that can be applied to a Master's Degree

TS6203 – The most pressing question facing the church in every generation is the one that Jesus posed to his disciples at Caesarea Phillipi, “Who do you say that I am?” How someone answers this question informs how they answer every other question that confronts them in life. In conversation with both classical and contemporary writers, this course challenges students to ponder the vistas into the work of Christ, the mission of the church, and the life of discipleship, that are opened up by dwelling richly upon and within the identity of Jesus Christ.

Professor: Rev. Dr. Robert Dean
Associate Professor of Theology and Ethics
