F27/W28 ADMISSIONS & SCHOLARSHIPS | PROVIDENCE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE COURSE GUIDE

APPLYING TO PROVIDENCE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

This course guide is used as a reference to help identify Grade 12 courses that meet Providence University College admission and scholarship requirements. Note: Course titles may vary by school. Out-of-province and international curriculum equivalencies are reviewed at the discretion of the Admissions Committee.

High school students are encouraged to apply as early as Grade 11 or 12 by completing the online application at prov.ca/apply. If Grade 12 marks are not available at the time of application, equivalent Grade 11 courses may be considered for provisional admission. The Admissions Committee reviews all applications and academic records to determine admission status. Complete details on admission requirements, application steps, and deadlines are available on our Admissions website.

Admission Requirements (per 2.1.1 of the Academic Calendar)

To be granted direct entry admission to a three- or four-year degree program, applicants must present:

- A Senior High School Diploma (or equivalent) with 30 credits min.*
- A minimum 70% overall average across five credits, including a 40S-level English and 4 additional approved courses
- A minimum grade of 70% in English

Students planning to graduate from the Manitoba SYTEP (Senior Years Technology Education Program) will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis for direct entry admission. For additional details, please reference our Academic Calendar.*

A Note on Faith-Based Coursework

Certain academically rigorous faith-based courses may be considered for admission and Academic Entrance Scholarship eligibility per the discretion of the admissions committee. Examples include Church History, Biblical and Theological Studies, and Catholic Studies. Courses focused on Discipleship do not qualify.

ACADEMIC ENTRANCE SCHOLARSHIPS

Academic Entrance Scholarships (AES) are available to all qualified students entering their first year of studies at Providence University College. These scholarships are automatically given to students based on their academic averages achieved in high school grades 11-12. In no case shall the previous award (based on grade 11 grades) be reduced. An official high school transcript of your grade 12 grades must be received prior to the start date of your program.

HIGH SCHOOL MARKS (AVG. %)	AWARD AMOUNT
80-84.9%	Receive $1,500
85-89.9%	Receive $2,500
90-94.9%	Receive $3,000
95-100%	Receive $3,500

Am I Eligible?

You are eligible if the following criteria is met:

1. You have submitted all application material (application form, relevant transcripts and application fee) by August 31.
2. You have graduated from high school within the last 5 years.
3. Your high school is in Canada or the United States of America, or is an international high school accredited by the ACSI.
4. You will be a first-year student to Providence University College (new to Providence).
5. You have not attempted more than 18 credit hours at a post-secondary institution (University or College).

Disbursement of Funds

The award will be given to students during two consecutive semesters divided equally for each semester. Disbursement of funds will take place within 4 weeks after semester start date. A reduction of credit hours (less than 12 cr.) within the semester in which an AES award is received will result in forfeit of the scholarship amount for the respective semester.

Award Deferral

Students may defer an awarded AES for one calendar year. Generous donors make AES awards possible. The AES award the recipient receives may be made up of multiple awards in order to make funds possible. Recipients may be contacted to thank our donors.
